EASTERN PARK, Brooklyn, June 13.— The Louisville tailenders were a tired-looking lot when they came on the field this afternoon to face Capt. Mike Griffin and his Bridgegrooms in the second game of the first series.
The two crushing defeats administered to them by Philadelphia yesterday must have disheartened the entire team, for their preliminary practice was dispirited.

TO APPOINT FIVE WOMEN.

Mayor Schieren Will Put Them on the Education Board.

Mayor Schieren took no action to-day in the appointment of women as members of the Board of Education.
The appointments will probably be announced early next week. The Mayor has promised to name five women.
The women who have been interesting themselves lately in the municipal affairs feel confident the Mayor will recognize their efforts in the direction of reform, especially in educational matters.

Held Hands Eighteen Hours.
Paul Goldsberry, a member of the Moody Quartet, and Mrs. D. W. Weiner, of Chicago, had a discussion on Christian science at Warwick, Mass., a few days ago. Mrs. Weiner is a believer in the science. Goldsberry is not. They eloped hands and agreed that the one who first broke the grasp should be declared beaten.
They held the grasp for eighteen hours, until the villagers grew alarmed and separated them by main force. Mrs. Weiner showed little effects of the contest, but Goldsberry was so violent it was necessary to tie him. It is thought that the woman hypnotized him.

WEATHER AND TRACK PERFECT.

Many Noted Turfmen Present, but the Club's Economy Was Against Music.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, SHEEPSHEAD BAY, June 13.—The thoroughbred that cantered to the post when the bugle sounded for the first race to-day were not groomed any finer than the infield and lawn of the most picturesque race track in America. There was a touch of spick and span about everything. Fresh coats of paint for the stands, houses and rails, and evidences of the generous use of the mower and broom everywhere else.
The weather was in keeping with the condition of the course. A brisk wind laden with the refreshing sting of the sea swept over the course and rendered the grand stand and shaded places as comfortable as the veranda of a summer hotel. The sun blazed down on the exposed infield, but only the old timers, accustomed to the blizzards of Guttenburg or the annual coast at Churchill Downs, sought that or hugged the rail on the grand stand side of the track.

Ten Thousand Early on Hand.

There were almost as many women as men in the grand stand, and they wore their nicest gowns, largest hats and contributed quite as much enthusiasm as a crowd of 10,000 men.
Second tier boxes, ranged after the style of the stand at Longchamps, where the Grand Prix of Paris is raced for, resembled a frieze in Spring flowers.
The prettiest women were there and the men looked up at them quite as often as they did at the horses in the race.
A crowd of 10,000 men.

No Music in the Stand.

There was one drawback to the opening day of the Coney Island Jockey Club and the day of days in the turf world. There was no music, the stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club having decided by a majority of one that they could not afford a band.

So a funeral silence hung over the race, the calls of the barkers, the toot of car whistles and the thunders of applause that emphasized the end of each race.
The absence of music did detract a little from the enjoyment of the day, because one always associates the biggest sort of a band with the biggest race, but the proverbial good-nature of the American public was manifested by the fact that there was not very much kicking about it.

If the crowd was not a record breaker in proportions, it was typically complicated in its make up. Pretty nearly everybody who is anybody was in the grand stand or paddock, or loitering about the field. Every man identified with the turf was there.

Turf Notables Who Were There.

Some of them were James R. Keene, "Lucky" Hardie, Col. J. J. Ruppert, Phil Dwyer, Pierre Lorillard, A.
H. Morris, J. J. McCafferty, John Daly, Dave Gideon, Charles Littlefield and J. E. McDonald. The best-known New Yorkers who were in the course were August Belmont, with a coaching party; Commodore E. D. Morgan, with another; ex-Congressman John Sanford, John Jacob Astor, with a party of friends; Fred Gebhard, Senator "Tim" Sullivan, W. K. Vanderbilt, ex-Comptroller Myers, Commissioner Brookfield, Senator Jacob A. Cantor, County Clerk Purroy, ex-Commissioner Wells, Dock Commissioner O'Brien.
Capt. J. C. Dewey, Subway Commissioner Jake Hess, ex-Health Officer Jenkins, Assemblyman Hennessey, of Brooklyn; Senator O'Sullivan, Assemblyman Sam Foley, Fred Gerken, Judge Barney Martin, ex-Police Commissioner James Martin, Justice Paddy Divver, Morris Tekulsky, Civil Justice Moore.

There was not much of a display of coaches. Four or five were quartered at the west end of the stand, but, compared to previous years, it was scarcely worth mentioning.
Credit betting exclusively was done.
A number of new men took chairs and were warned that a repetition of the offense would land them outside the gates.

After the second race no passing of money was attempted. Those who wished to bet, however, had no difficulty in getting down all the money they wished to wager. All of the betting was done in the old ring.

Domino at 1 to 2.

There was very tight business done before the race itself was run. This seemed to be due to the fact that Domino was an overwhelming favorite at 1 to 2 and no one seemed disposed to play anything else to defeat the great black.

POLO GROUNDS, New York, June 13.— William, "Buck" Ewing's Cincinnati team, including Actor Arle Latham, Jiggs Parrott, he of wheels and speedy curves, "Dummy" Hoy and a host of other Popopolitan notables from "Over the Rhine," turned up on these grounds this afternoon to take the second try of their present Eastern series against Cochran's baseball representatives.

Before the game they cavorted about the diamond, while the Catholic Protective band of sixty pieces discouraged music. The great and only Arle and "Jiggs" outdid themselves in the matter of imitating Lou Fuller, and kept the big crowd in a constant uproar with their funny antics.

The Toboggan Before Them.

With the metropolitan representatives the matter was far too serious. The second division again started them in the face. The Giants and Cincinnati were head and head for last place in the first division.

Despite the many other big sporting events in the vicinity of New York, the cranks turned out in force, fully 5,000 people being present. The weather was perfect.

NIAGARA WINS A RACE.

Britannia Also Victor on Time Allowance at Southampton.

SOUTHAMPTON, June 13.—In beautiful weather for yacht racing, Alia and Britannia started at 10:30 this morning in a race under the auspices of the Royal Southern Yacht Club. The course was forty-five miles long, twice around the Lepe, Sturbridge and Bramble buoys.
Alia had the best of the start, and passed the mark twenty seconds ahead of Britannia. The latter had the lead luck to touch and off Calshot spit, and she remained around three minutes.
At 3 o'clock Alia had a lead of thirty-three minutes on Britannia.

The first round was finished by the big yachts, in a moderate breeze, as follows:

Alia..... 1 41 11
Britannia..... 1 41 11

It will be seen from these figures that Niagara was only 58 seconds behind the leader at the end of the first round.

Niagara, Audrey, Inyoni and Stephanie started at 11 o'clock in a race for 30 raters under the auspices of the same club. The course for the smaller craft was the same as yesterday, namely thirty-two miles long, from Calshot Castle twice around the Spit Light.

The 30-raters got well away together, with the exception of Audrey. Niagara passed the pit a minute ahead, but Audrey and Inyoni soon overhauled her.

The wind was very light.
Off Hyde Inyoni was leading the 30-raters. Niagara was last and away behind.

The 30-raters finished the first round in the following times:

Niagara..... 2 04 42
Audrey..... 2 04 42
Inyoni..... 2 04 42
Stephanie..... 2 04 42

The following were the times of the yachts in the 30-rater class at the finish:

Niagara..... 2 04 42
Audrey..... 2 04 42
Inyoni..... 2 04 42
Stephanie..... 2 04 42

Niagara, the winner, was last and away behind her competitors when the yachts were off Hyde.

In the race for the big yachts Britannia won, on time allowance, by eight seconds.
